Dear Sean:

Thanks again for the terrific job at Laine's wedding reception on June 25th. We received many comments from our guests, both young and old, about how much they enjoyed the band. Mel and I have been friends since early in elementary school so it was special to have him perform at Laine's wedding.

I had planned to buy the band a few rounds of drinks at the Four Courts of Ireland following the wedding, but had too many drinks myself to remember. Once I did you, Mel and Sherry had left. Enclosed is a check to make up for my omission. Please buy a few rounds for the guys at your next gig with my sincere gratitude.

Thanks Again.
